

Policy: Extensions & Special Consideration

Policy Type:	Divisional Policy
Policy Number:	TCDP21
Date Approved:	19 April 2024
Previous Policy:	TCPS Adjustment to Assessment and Special Consideration
Review Date:	1 December 2026

1 OBJECTIVES

- 1.1 The objective of this policy is to provide a framework for extensions (up to 10 business days) and special consideration to ensure transparency regarding:
- The types of extensions and special consideration provided to students
 - The eligibility requirements
 - The timelines and evidentiary requirements for applications
 - The delegations of authority for the assessment of applications and recording outcomes.

2 SCOPE

- 2.1 This policy applies to all Trinity College Foundation Studies students.

3 POLICY

- 3.1 Trinity College Pathways School acknowledges that a student's academic performance may be significantly affected by genuine compassionate and compelling circumstances as outlined in sections 4 and 6.
- 3.2 Where students demonstrate genuine compassionate and compelling circumstances which may have impacted on their performance in an assessment piece, they may be eligible for special consideration or an extension to the due date.

- 3.3 Where an extension or special consideration is approved, it must:
- a) ensure the academic integrity of the assessment
 - b) assess the same learning outcomes as the original assessment
 - c) ensure equity for all students in that subject
 - d) maintain equivalence between marking criteria for any alternative assessment and the original assessment task.

Extensions to assessment submission due dates (up to 10 business days)

- 3.4 A Subject Leader (or delegate) may grant an assessment extension to a due date of up to 10 business days where the eligibility and evidentiary requirements are met as per section 4.
- 3.5 Extensions to assessment are not applicable for examinations. Deferred examinations may be granted as per the special consideration process.
- 3.6 Students must submit the online Extension Request Form with relevant supporting documentation (where applicable) prior to the submission deadline for the assessment.
- 3.7 Late extension requests may be accepted where compassionate and compelling circumstances prevented the application submission prior to the due date.
- 3.8 Students who request an extension should continue working on their assessment task in case the extension is denied.
- 3.9 The Subject Leader (or delegate) must notify the student of the outcome in writing within three (3) business days of the submission of the request.
- 3.10 The Subject Leader (or delegate) may deny the request for an extension where the student has not demonstrated compassionate and compelling circumstances that have impacted their ability to complete the assessment by the due date or where an extension is impractical. Where group assessment is concerned, the extension can be awarded individually or for the whole group at the discretion of the Subject Leader.
- 3.11 Where an application has been denied the student may appeal the decision through the Trinity College Pathways School Student Complaint Policy.
- 3.12 Where a student is unable to submit their assessment by the revised due date, late penalties will apply unless a successful special consideration application is submitted.
- 3.13 The subject leader may grant extensions of up to 10 business days. This may be made up of multiple extensions of up to but not exceeding the 10 business day timeframe.

Special Consideration

- 3.14 Special consideration is a measure to ensure that circumstances, that negatively impact a student's ability to undertake, prepare for, and/or complete an assessment task are considered so that the student is not disadvantaged.
- 3.15 Students may apply for special consideration if they have evidence of compassionate and compelling circumstances which have resulted in the student:
- needing an extension to an assessment deadline of more than 10 business days
 - preparation for and/or attendance in an examination is adversely affected.
 - Their performance in other assessments being significantly impacted.
- 3.16 Students must apply in writing by submitting the Special Consideration Application Form with the required evidence (as specified in 4.1) attached:
- prior to the due time/date of an assessment submission (assessments) or; b) within two (2) business days after the examination date (examinations) - the online form must be submitted by 5.00pm Melbourne time on the second business day.
- 3.17 If the required evidence is not attached within the Special Consideration Application Form, the student may submit the required documentation within four (4) business days of the original application.
- 3.18 The Senior Coordinator, Academic Administration (or delegate) is responsible for determining whether Special Consideration will be granted. The Senior Coordinator, Academic Administration (or delegate) will liaise with the Subject Leader (or delegate) on appropriate measures as outlined in 3.19. The Senior Coordinator, Academic Administration (or delegate) is responsible for communicating assessment adjustments to Subject Leaders and other relevant staff where required. The Senior Coordinator, Academic Administration (or delegate) must respond to the applicant with details of the outcome, within 5 business days of the completed application and relevant supporting documents.
- 3.19 Special consideration outcomes may include but are not limited to:
- A deferred assessment or examination
 - An extension in time for the submission of assessment/s
 - Additional Assessments
 - Resubmission of assessments
 - Awarding a moderated mark as per the Marks Review Guidelines
- 3.20 Special Consideration applications may be denied if:
- The application is not submitted within the nominated timeframe
 - The required evidence is not submitted in the nominated timeframes
 - The student does not demonstrate eligibility requirements outlined in sections 4 and 6.
- 3.21 Where an application for Special Consideration is declined, the student may request a review of the decision through the Trinity College Pathways School Student Complaints and Appeals Policy.

Late Special Consideration Applications

- 3.22 The Senior Coordinator, Academic Administration (or delegate), will determine whether a late application for special consideration may be accepted.
- 3.23 Late applications for special consideration must provide:
- a) Satisfactory explanation for the late submission, with evidence supporting the argument that a timely submission was not possible
 - b) all of the required evidence to support the application.
- 3.24 The Senior Coordinator, Academic Administration (or delegate) will advise the applicant, and relevant staff members, of the outcome via email within five (5) business days of the receipt of the complete application and supporting documents.

Alternative assessment arrangements for ongoing circumstances

- 3.25 Students may apply for alternative assessment arrangements for ongoing circumstances under the Special Adjustments Policy.
- 3.26 Where a student with a Special Adjustment Action Plan is unable to meet the assessment requirements or deadlines outlined in the plan, the student may apply for Special Consideration.
- 3.27 Applications for Special Consideration as per 3.27 must demonstrate either:
- a) A different compassionate and compelling circumstance that prevented them from meeting the requirements of the Special Adjustment Action Plan
 - b) An unforeseen deterioration in their condition which has required additional arrangements to be made.

Privacy

- 3.28 By submitting an application a student agrees to some limited but necessary sharing of information. Access to sensitive and confidential information in the special consideration application is limited to designated Trinity College staff. By completing an application the student agrees to this selective sharing of information.
