POSITION SUMMARY

The Trinity College Foundation Studies Program (TCFS) is a pre-university course that qualifies overseas students for entry to the University of Melbourne and other Australian universities.

The Foundation Studies Economics course aims to help students develop a capacity to consider issues from an economics perspective and understand the major aspects of the Australian economic environment focusing on micro and macroeconomics. The course assumes that the student has no knowledge of Economics.

The role of Economics tutor involves tutoring microeconomics and macroeconomics in the August Comprehensive Extended Program commencing on the 15th of August 2016 and finishing early Feb 2017. Additionally there is administration of assessment and correction of the subject, report writing, mentoring, availability to students and other duties relating to the subject and the broader program.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Essential:
1. A qualification at a tertiary level in Economics
2. Specific work experience in teaching student’s micro and macroeconomics, preferably at a Foundation Studies, VCE or University Level.
3. Capability of using and engaging students with iPad technology, used by students in the Trinity classroom and incorporating this technology as part of the curriculum program.
4. High level interpersonal and communication skills (written and oral) within a culturally diverse education community or similar environment.
5. A commitment to academic excellence and an understanding of Australian educational practices.
6. Demonstrated experience maintaining confidential records and performing administrative tasks related to teaching.
7. Well developed computer literacy, using Microsoft Office applications
8. Demonstrated experience of positively contributing to and working within a team and independently.
10. An understanding of and commitment to compliance of Occupational Health and Safety requirements.

Further Information:
• Applicants must be Australian Citizens, Permanent Residents or hold a valid work permit or visa. If called for interview evidence of status will be required
• The successful applicant must have, or be in the process of securing, a Working with Children approval.
• Applicants will be required to bring originals or certified copies of academic and other qualifications if called for interview.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Economics teachers are required to:

1. Prepare and deliver tutorials, contribute towards writing exam papers and assessment tasks.
2. Use iPads in class and help to develop the students’ skills in using iPads and related technologies.
3. Contribute to ongoing program development.
4. Provide individual attention to assist students outside of class time (approximately 1 hour per class).
5. Write term reports and mark student work.
6. Engage in the College’s Student Mentoring Program.
7. Assist in student orientation activities.
8. Attend departmental meetings.
9. Attend occasional staff meetings and conferences.
10. Undertake relief teaching for staff on leave if available.

TRINITY COLLEGE

Founded in 1872 as the first college of the University of Melbourne, Trinity College is a unique tertiary institution that provides a diverse range of rigorous academic programs for more than 2,000 talented students from across Australia and around the world. These programs include:

• The residential College for undergraduate and postgraduate students of the University of Melbourne, both resident and non-resident.
• Trinity College Foundation Studies (TCFS), a one-year course which prepares able overseas students for undergraduate entry to the University of Melbourne and other leading Australian universities.
• Trinity College Theological School (TCTS), which offers degree and other courses for training and forming Anglican clergy and others, on campus, online, and in parishes.
• Young Leaders Summer Schools for Australian and overseas secondary school students.
• Various short courses.

Trinity promotes academic excellence across a balanced, all-round education that includes both ‘breadth’ and ‘depth’ of content, together with the development of ethical values, personal integrity, leadership and social responsibility. A Trinity education is further characterised by a high level of international engagement and a strong commitment to equity and diversity.

These educational programs are supported by the College Library, Art Collection and Archives, Information Technology, the College Chapel and Chaplaincy, Music – including a world-class Choir – Communications, Human Resources, and Finance and Administration – including finance, accounts, property and operations, and conferences and hospitality. The Advancement Office and Trinity College Foundation undertake friend-raising and fund-raising activities that benefit the College as a whole.

An Anglican institution, Trinity welcomes people of all faiths and none. The College celebrates, and is enriched by, the diversity of backgrounds of its staff and students.
