Trinity College offers a suite of scholarships for students entering graduate schools of the University of Melbourne from 2011. These opportunities reflect the generosity of many benefactors and a commitment to supporting the Melbourne Model right through to postgraduate level.

Competitive scholarships of up to $10,000, or half residential fees, are offered for outstanding students entering graduate courses in Medicine, the Health Sciences (including Dentistry, Physiotherapy and Optometry), Veterinary Science, Law (Juris Doctor) and Engineering. Some general scholarships – for other courses such as Education and Architecture – are also available.

Residence at Trinity provides graduates with up to 52 weeks in residence (all meals, utilities and internet access included) and first-class academic support in a friendly, inspiring community of exceptional students and staff, many of whom will become leaders in their field – and your lifelong friends and colleagues.

With access to professional mentoring, teaching opportunities and visiting international scholars, the future is yours ...
About Trinity College
Established in 1872 as the first college of the University of Melbourne, Trinity is home to 290 undergraduate and postgraduate residents undertaking degree programs at the University. Set adjacent to the main University campus, Trinity offers tutorials and consultations for all major subjects, and has 13 resident and 50 non-resident tutors, as well as three scholars-in-residence.

An Anglican institution, Trinity welcomes people of all faiths and none. The College celebrates, and is enriched by, the diversity of backgrounds of its staff and students.
