"The best part of this program was collaborating and jamming with other like-minded people. The experiences I had, the lessons I learned and the connections I made with other young musicians were invaluable."

DO YOU LOVE JAZZ?

If you’re 14–17 and want to learn from some of the world’s greatest jazz musicians, come and join the Juilliard Jazz School at Trinity!

In the July school holidays, for the fourth consecutive year, the renowned Juilliard School in New York City is sending its top jazz teachers to work with passionate young jazz musicians just like you, at Trinity College, the University of Melbourne.

For one week you live on campus at College and form part of an ensemble group. Together you will focus on your jazz performance, hear about the journey of a musician, increase your confidence to perform, and jam with other jazz musicians from around the world!

You will find that your performance skills are transformed – some of our students say it is like having six months’ worth of practice in one week!

JAZZ SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS

• be mentored by Carl Allen and the Juilliard All Stars
• jam through the evenings with your peers
• participate in instrumental classes, listening classes and special topic lectures
• work in jazz ensembles with Juilliard tutors preparing for your final concert
• listen to the Juilliard Jazz All Stars perform and experience live jazz Melbourne-style
• experience life in a residential college.

APPLICATION PROCESS

If you’d like to join us for the Juilliard Jazz School at Trinity, you require:

• knowledge of at least 3 major and 3 minor scales
• the ability to play over a blues in Bb, F, G minor or C minor
• basic reading of melodies and rhythms.

You’ll also need to prepare a jazz piece audition, which can be played solo, with a backing track or with live accompaniment.

‘Learning from such legendary musicians was an experience I will never forget.’
