ACADEMIC STREAMS

All academic streams are aligned with the University of Melbourne’s New Generation Undergraduate degrees to give you an idea of where your future studies might take you.

WEEK 1 PROGRAMS

Arts Stream
If you’re interested in studying a Bachelor of Arts, this stream gives insight into Art majors, such as psychology, media and communications.

Commerce Stream
Explore the fields of accounting, business, economics, finance, management and marketing, and experience a taste of a Bachelor of Commerce.

WEEK 2 PROGRAMS

Social Justice Stream
This program develops leadership skills associated with grassroots movements for social justice, tackling key issues in today’s society including sustainability, global poverty and human rights.

Fine Arts Stream
Interested in a Bachelor of Fine Arts? This is the stream for you! Discover a diverse range of art forms, including performance art, visual art, movement and music, writing and public speaking.

English Intensive for International Students
Move beyond understanding English and learn to manipulate the language for more effective communication that will enhance and improve the ways you communicate in English as a second language.

‘I have learned that if we take change into our own hands and work as one, we can make poverty history and generate a sustainable future for everyone.’
LUKE DUNDON
Melbourne, Australia (Social Justice)

‘The class discussions were really fascinating and gave me an understanding of the way in which the human mind works.’
ANNABELLE WEST
Auckland, New Zealand (Arts)

‘I’d never made a presentation by myself before this week. At Trinity I’ve learned to do things independently and how to pronounce my words clearly.’
PLEAN JANJATANAVIT
Bangkok, Thailand (English Intensive)
