OVERVIEW

Founded in 1872 as the first college of the University of Melbourne, Trinity College is a unique tertiary institution that provides a diverse range of academic programs to talented students from across Australia and around the world.

Trinity College programs include:

- the Residential College for undergraduate and postgraduate students of the University of Melbourne and of the Trinity College Theological School, both resident and non-resident

- Trinity College Theological School (TCTS), a centre for Anglican theology and ministry that educates people, lay and ordained, to work for the transformation of church and society

- Trinity College Foundation Studies (TCFS), which offers a range of one-year courses that prepare able overseas students for undergraduate entry to the University of Melbourne and other leading Australian universities

- the Trinity Institute, which offers inspirational leadership programs for high school students, innovative professional development, and thought-provoking open learning opportunities for all

Trinity College actively contributes to the academic, sporting and cultural life of the wider community. Its main campus is located adjacent to the University of Melbourne grounds.

An Anglican institution, Trinity welcomes people of all faiths and none. The College celebrates, and is enriched by, the diversity of backgrounds of its staff and students.

By almost all measures it was a fine year, and there is good reason to see the future with a sense of optimism and great possibility.

The dark moments in our lives were the untimely deaths by misadventure of Joshua Hardy, a third-year resident student from Darwin, and Kevin Soetjipto from Indonesia, a recent graduate of Foundation Studies. We give thanks for their lives and celebrate their scholarship and friendship while at Trinity.
The report that follows is rich and detailed, but let me recommend some highlights from the year past:

- There was continuing and remarkable growth of admissions of international students in Foundation Studies. Over the past four years the student numbers have doubled, and there was well over 1,000 students in the program in 2014. The growth has strengthened the College in many ways, including in its partnership with the University of Melbourne, its place as a leading education provider, its relationship with Asia, and in greater financial security and opportunities for development.

- A new teaching and staff facility for Foundation Studies was developed at 200 Victoria Street, Carlton, adjacent to the Queen Victoria Market. Established through a 10-year lease of the top two floors of the EPA Building, this is a first-class addition to the College.

- Construction commenced on the Gateway building on the southern precinct of the College grounds. This is the most important capital project for many years, and will establish excellent resources for education, cultural life, art and archives, and public engagement. It is expected that the building will be completed mid-2016.

- Alongside regret at the decision to close the United Faculty of Theology (UFT) that has served the cause of ecumenical theological education so well for more than 40 years, there was cause for celebration on 7 July when the Trinity College Theological School formally became an independent College of the University of Divinity. The School also recruited some further excellent staff, and is well placed to take the next step as a more comprehensive and independent academic faculty than was the case in the UFT.

- The students of the residential College continued to achieve very strong academic results, and enjoyed a full and rich year of community endeavour in social service, sport and cultural pursuits. Important advances were made in policies and services in young adult mental health and wellbeing.

- There was good progress in engagement with young Indigenous women and men from across the nation, including through the short-term Young Leaders Programs for school students, and partnerships with the University of Melbourne and Yalari in hosting short courses for high-achieving students. Trinity also made an important contribution to building a Bachelor of Science Extended degree that will give greater access to Indigenous students keen to pursue science and health fields.

- The College achieved a very strong financial result and is ready to finance the Gateway building and other development projects. The financial operations were complemented importantly by the continuing generosity of the many donors to Trinity, to whom we extend sincere appreciation.

2014 also saw the departure of the seventh Warden, the Revd Professor Andrew McGowan, who took up appointment as Dean and President of the Berkeley Divinity School at Yale, an Episcopal seminary. Andrew’s splendid contribution to Trinity was celebrated and acclaimed, and he and Dr Felicity Harley McGowan left with the College’s deep thanks and best wishes.

In my role as Provost and Acting Warden of Trinity, I sincerely thank Mr Jim Craig as Chair and all members of the Board and the subcommittees for their wise counsel and clear governance, and the Archbishop of Melbourne, Dr Philip Freier, for his leadership of the Council, and the members of Council for their deliberations. The College is blessed to have so many engaged and effective leaders and volunteers.

Provost and Acting Warden
COUNCIL

REGULAR PRESENTATIONS CONTINUE TO BE MADE TO THE BOARD BY THE VARIOUS TEACHING AND SUPPORT DIVISIONS OF THE COLLEGE, AS WELL AS BY EXTERNAL CONSULTANTS AS REQUIRED.

The Board monitors the College’s performance by way of monthly financial and executive reports, and through the deliberations and reports of the various subcommittees. The Board also undertakes an annual self-evaluation survey.

The Board has committees that oversee Buildings and Grounds, Education Strategy, Finance, Governance, Investment Management, Risk Management, including OH&S, and the Theological School. In 2014 the Board reviewed and considered the governance structure of the College and the continuing contribution of all committees. The Risk Management and Audit Committee was disbanded, and the responsibilities for operational risk were taken up by the Senior Management Team and the Finance Committee.

The Board assumed responsibility for matters of strategic risk. The Education Strategy Committee moved from being a regular standing committee to a series of project-specific working groups.

During 2014, the Board held nine meetings. Key discussions included International Strategy, the Gateway Building, the Annual Risk Review, Operating and Capital Budgets, Fundraising, and future arrangements with the University of Melbourne related to Foundation Studies. The Board also approved a range of major infrastructure projects including the Behan Stage 2 renovations and Bishops’ building bathroom renovations, development of a multi-purpose court and the leasing and associated fit-out of 200 Victoria Street, Carlton to accommodate increased Foundation Studies enrolments.

The Board was pleased to appoint Ms Susanna King, and reappoint Mr Stuart Gooley and Bishop John Parkes. Mr Jack Young followed Ms Anna Traill as Senior Student of the College, an ex officio position on the Board. The Board farewelled and thanked Ms Oshana De Silva at the conclusion of her term of eight years on the Board in July. Ms De Silva was instrumental in establishing for the College good practice in risk management.

Upon the resignation of the Revd Professor Andrew McGowan, the Board commenced the search for the next Warden of the College.

In May, it considered and approved the 2013 Annual Report of the College. Council re-appointed the Rt Revd John Parkes for a further two-year term as a member of the Board. In October the Council appointed Mr Bill Cowan AM to the Council, and re-elected Professor Kenneth Hinchcliff for a third term of three years. The Council elected Ms Rowena Armstrong AO QC, Dr Graeme Leslie Blackman OAM, Associate Professor Alison Inglis and the Rt Revd Andrew William Curnow AM as new Honorary Fellows of the College. The Council heard a presentation by the Revd Canon Dr Ray Cleary and the Revd Canon Professor Dorothy Lee regarding the Trinity College Theological School’s new structure and curriculum as a College of the University of Divinity.
FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE

THE COLLEGE HAD A GOOD YEAR FINANCIALLY. THE RESIDENTIAL COLLEGE WAS FULL, AND FOUNDATION STUDIES ENROLMENTS CONTINUED TO INCREASE.

The international student market for Foundation Studies is rising and the demand for the Trinity College program is strong. This is being driven by, among other things, the University of Melbourne’s strong global and regional ranking and Foundation Studies being a premier pathway program.

The charts below show a breakdown of the consolidated income and expenditure for the year to 31 December 2014.

The College generates most of its income from fees, but the many generous donations received during the year also make an important contribution to the life of the College. For example, in 2014 funds were donated for scholarships, teaching and lectureships, educational programs and for capital works including the Gateway building among other things.

In 2014 the College spent some $11.4 million on capital works to improve infrastructure and operations. The major projects included the next stage of the refurbishment of the Behan building, the fit-out of the teaching facilities in the new Victoria Street premises and the initial stages of the Gateway building.

Trinity College and the Trinity College Foundation have a portfolio of investments from donations and endowments. These investment funds support the College through the funding of scholarships, studentships, contributions to staff teaching and lectureships, building projects and other College activities. The Board, through the Finance and Investment Committees, regularly reviews the College’s investment performance and fund drawdowns to ensure that programs and activities are supported adequately, while also endeavouring to ensure endowed funds are maintained in real terms for the long term.

2014 INCOME

- Fee income 82.3%
- Investment income 6.2%
- Other income 5.9%
- Interest income 0.5%
- Donations 5.0%

2014 EXPENDITURE

- Staff costs 48.2%
- Buildings and grounds 10.4%
- Marketing and promotion 13.1%
- Administration and other 14.9%
- Depreciation and amortisation 7.9%
- Catering and hospitality 5.5%
DESPITE THE TRAGIC ENDING TO SEMESTER 2, THE COLLEGE COMMUNITY HAD A VERY GOOD YEAR IN TERMS OF ACADEMIC RESULTS AND WELLBEING, AND PARTICULARLY IN SPORT.

The residential community suffered the severe blow of the loss of Joshua Hardy, a third-year Arts student and Larrakia man from Darwin, on 18 October, the morning after Valedictory Dinner. Joshua was, in the words of the Provost at the Memorial Service, a shining soul, an extremely well-liked student respected for his concern for others and for his sporting achievements. The College did a remarkable job of dealing with the aftermath, with the Revd Lynda McMinn being instrumental in leading the College through various rituals of mourning. The Joshua Hardy Cup will be presented to the best and fairest in male sport in 2015. A new memorial scholarship fund for Indigenous students is in the process of being set up.

Joshua’s passing, coming just before examinations, inevitably impacted student results. Dr Katherine Firth, who took on the role of Head of Academic Programs in July, worked tirelessly with the University to ensure that students were given maximum consideration. However, students had already been made offers for postgraduate law and medicine before the tragedy. With eight alumni also now at Oxbridge, the College can still feel reassured about its academic seriousness.
The tutoring team, of around 90 resident and non-resident tutors, performed to its usual high standard, with the extracurricular tutorials in music and art being popular as always. The Fireside Chat series had big audiences, particularly for Laureate Professor Peter Doherty and Professor Ross Garnaut.

The Oak Program also had a stellar year, ending with former Prime Minister Mr Malcolm Fraser as guest speaker. With the new Careers Office firmly established, the College has the basis for extending its mentoring program further in 2015.

The College said farewell to resident tutors Dr Erika Duan and Sarah Ward, while welcoming the new College Nurse, Emily Dawson (replacing Andrea Ball) and the College Counselor, Anita Krautschneider (in a new role for the residential College). With the Warden’s search still ongoing, Campbell Bairstow became Provost until the end of 2015, with Dr Sally Dalton-Brown becoming Dean in the interim.

Sport was a particular highlight, with Trinity winning the Cowan Cup as well as its first footy final in 20 years (the late Frank Henagan would have been very proud). The rugby boys reclaimed victory, while Trinity’s sportswomen excelled across a variety of activities. In the arts, Trinity wrote its own play for the first time under the guidance of resident tutor Angus Cameron, while the musical was as always a wonderful frame for the range of talent at the College. In other arts achievements, the Candystripes and Tiger Tones held showcases, the latter troupe also getting through to the finals of an a cappella competition. The Orchestra performed for a local underprivileged community, and in Outreach the College as always showed remarkable dedication to service.

The residential team has worked well with outgoing Senior Student Anna Trail and 2015 Senior Student Jack Young. The TCAC for 2015 has already shown keenness and creativity. One particular initiative was the setting up of a student-led Wellbeing Committee, under the Chaplain’s portfolio, and with TCAC representation. The Trinity community continued to embrace Edith Head Hall, with students coming up to dinner and the Fireside Chats on main campus occasionally. The Hall has undergone some staffing changes, with the appointment of two new administrators and two new resident tutors for 2015.
TRINITY COLLEGE FOUNDATION STUDIES (TCFS) IS A HIGHLY SOUGHT AFTER PATHWAY PROGRAM THAT IN 2014 PREPARED OVER 1,200 INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS FOR UNDERGRADUATE ENTRY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE, AS WELL AS OTHER LEADING AUSTRALIAN UNIVERSITIES.

The TCFS program continues to produce high-level outcomes for its international students. The overall results for the 2014 academic year were slightly below the 2013 results, but in line with the 10-year average results for the program.

In 2014, TCFS trialled the Flipped Classroom, in which students watch a short instructional video before class, followed by an in-depth discussion in the classroom. Academic staff also trialled the recording of lectures for on-demand viewing.

Commencement numbers grew from 998 to 1,210 students, an overall increase of 21.4%. The most rapid increase occurred in the August Comprehensive Extended intake, with a large number of Chinese students enrolling for the 18-month program.

In order to accommodate the rapid growth, Trinity College established new classroom and staff facilities on three floors of 200 Victoria Street, Carlton – a 6-star green building.

Trinity College has also commenced work on the Gateway building, which will provide four storeys of classrooms, lecture theatres, music practice rooms and drama rooms, to be used during the day by TCFS students and in the evening by residential College students. This will allow further growth, but a limit to growth will be put in place in 2016.

The Pathways School, formed in 2013 – consisting of TCFS, the Young Leaders Program, Jazz Program and other short programs and conferences – is now a cohesive unit within Trinity College.

Marketing staff from TCFS and the University of Melbourne meet regularly to discuss strategies and collaborate on joint areas of interest. This provides better outcomes for students and agents, and saves on marketing expenditure for both parties.

Students continue to take up travel and community development opportunities provided by Trinity College. During the year students travelled to Central Australia with staff.

For more than 40 years, we have been teaching Theology as part of an ecumenical consortium. At the end of 2014, however, the United Faculty of Theology was wound up. In preparation for this, the Theological School gained independent status as a College of the University of Divinity. This came into effect on 1 January 2015.

This move took several months of negotiation and hard work involving the submission of new strategic and financial plans, the appointment of an almost entirely new faculty, the accreditation of staff to teach new courses, and approval of a new curriculum of more than 90 individual units.

Success was achieved due in large part to the support of the Board of Trinity College and the leadership of Bishop John Parkes.

In August, Archbishop Jeffrey Driver gave the 44th Barry Marshall Memorial Lecture at Trinity College on ‘The Gift and Grief of Anglicanism’. The annual Theological School Retreat was held at Pallotti College. The retreat conductor was the Dean, the Revd Canon Professor Dorothy Lee, who led meditations on the spirituality of the Sermon on the Mount in Matthew’s Gospel.

During the year, the Revd Professor Andrew McGowan left the College to take an appointment at Yale, and at the end of the year Dr David Gormley-O’Brien and the Revd Canon Dr Ray Cleary finished their contracts. Earlier in the year, the School Administrator, Ms Lek Koswig also departed Trinity. As the new Registrar, Dr Peter Campbell began at the School in August.

The new Faculty for 2015 consists of the Dean, the Revd Canon Professor Dorothy Lee; the Revd Dr Stephen Burns, who will be Distinguished Lecturer in Liturgical and Pastoral Theology, as well as Associate Dean and Formation Co-ordinator; the Revd Dr Don Saines, Senior Lecturer in Systematic Theology and Coursework Co-ordinator; the Revd Professor Mark Lindsay, Professor of Historical Theology and Research Co-ordinator; the Revd Cecilia Francis, Lecturer in Practical Theology and Field Education Co-ordinator; and the Revd Jasmine Dow, Lecturer in Practical Theology and Certificate Co-ordinator.

In February, the School ran the inaugural Anglican Summer School, with guest speaker Professor Stanley Hauerwas from Duke Divinity School.

In November and December, eight students were ordained as priest in Melbourne and two in Ballarat. Mr Michael Danaher proved to be a useful and inspiring Senior Student of the School.

Finance continues to be a challenge for the Theological School, but two new benefactions created the Susan Sandford Fund and the Rosemary Young Fund for Theological students. Such gifts make all the difference to the life and work of the Trinity College Theological School.
In 2014 the Trinity Institute welcomed two new staff members to the team: Lisa MacKinven, Leadership Programs Officer, and Marc Horner, Conference and Accommodation Coordinator.

Overall, 2014 was the most successful year to date for all areas of the Institute.

The Institute coordinated tailored programs with various strategic partners, for organisations both locally and internationally, including:

- Global Leaders in Science, January. This program was developed for 86 Brazilian undergraduate students who were on exchange studying at the University of Melbourne. The three-week program developed the leadership potential in these young scientists, teaching them how to effectively communicate, pitch ideas and manage their personal brand in an increasingly competitive world.

- Yalari Year 10 Orientation Program, February. There were 37 recipients of Yalari scholarships, which offer Indigenous students from regional, rural and remote communities throughout Australia a chance to experience a first-class secondary education, a value that Trinity also shares – providing access to education to students regardless of their financial means.

- New York Jazz Symposium, July. Forty outstanding high school students successfully auditioned for the Symposium, participating in workshops and performances lead by world-class jazz musicians, educators and mentors.

- Residential Indigenous Science Experience (RISE), November. Fifty-one Year 9 and 10 students participated in a science exposure program in partnership with the Faculty of Science at the University of Melbourne.

- Strengthening Engagement and Achievement in Mathematics and Science (SEAMS) Junior, December. Twenty-four Indigenous students participated in mathematics and science in a culturally supportive environment that encourages students to pursue science and mathematics to senior secondary and tertiary level.

These programs were in addition to the regular Young Leaders Program, which broke record numbers in July with 110 students participating in Week 1, comprising Arts, Commerce and the Jazz Symposium. In Week 2, 117 students participated in Biomedicine, English, Fine Arts and Social Justice.

In December there were 85 students in four 2-week streams: Arts, Biomedicine, Commerce and Science/Engineering. As the July 2009 program had only 12 students, and each was international, this is a significant expansion.

Conferencing and Events continued to strengthen partnerships with the University of Melbourne, alumni and external clientele.

The year also saw discussions with the University of Delaware and the subsequent confirmation of bookings for 2016 and 2017.

The Conference team continues to fine-tune operational aspects of the business with reductions in costs being achieved, whilst increasing the quality of products and service being delivered.

ADVANCEMENT

IN 2014, WE WERE ONCE AGAIN HUMBLED BY THE GENEROSITY AND SUPPORT OF THE TRINITY COLLEGE COMMUNITY.

This support is greatly appreciated and is allowing the College to continue to provide an educational experience that can be compared with the best in the world.

We have more scholarships than ever before. We are continually upgrading and maintaining our beautiful historic buildings, and are well on our way to funding the new academic and cultural precinct. The internationally recognised Trinity Choir continues to receive support, and our General Endowment continues to grow. We are leading the way with our commitment to Indigenous education, and are attracting outstanding visiting scholars.

In 2014 we had over 600 donors making combined contributions of just under $2.5 million in cash, with a further $475,000 pledged for future years.

Fundraising figures alone don’t reveal the investment in future potential giving.

The fundraising efforts were supported by fantastic efforts in donor and alumni engagement.

In 2014, the Advancement team had over 300 face-to-face meetings with approximately 400 alumni and friends of the College, where the activities and projects we are involved with at Trinity were shared, and their support was asked for. (In 2013, we tallied 260 face-to-face meetings.)

Furthermore, there were 41 events, in four different states, which were attended by over 1,900 people. Over 250 people again attended the Drinks Under the Oak, where John (Jack) Best AO was announced as the inaugural winner of the Bill Cowan Alumnus of the Year Award.

Over 12 months our College LinkedIn membership grew by 50% from 1,000 to 1,500, providing us with a long-term avenue for staying in touch with alumni.

This year we also changed the system by which we send our E-News bulletins, giving us an opportunity to measure reader engagement. In 2014 we had an open rate of 48% (the percentage of people who open their E-News email).

We do not have 2013 figures to compare this with, but the average in the education sector sits around 24% (the Economics and Commerce Faculty at the University of Melbourne has an open rate of 20%). This suggests that our readers – largely residential College alumni – remain highly engaged with the College over time.

Late last year we also started measuring the average monthly visitors to our website. In 2013 it was 24,500, for 2014 we averaged 32,400 per month.

In May, the Gateway building was featured in various University of Melbourne publications, including the ‘Voice’ magazine in The Age, the University’s Alumni news, and the campaign publication ‘Believe’.

Two highlights stand out during the year. The speeches made by the scholarship recipients at the Founders & Benefactors Dinner were so honest and heartfelt that they actually bought a tear to the eye.

And then a much smaller event we held for the donors to the Gibson Scholarship, where we heard from Hussain Alamein about his incredible journey having to flee Iraq, spending 18 months in detention on Nauru. He arrived in Shepparton, not being able to speak English. After struggling at first, he flourished at school and became school captain. Thanks solely to receiving a scholarship, he was able to accept a place studying Biomedicine at the University of Melbourne. Hearing his story was incredibly moving.

Certainly, the Foundation’s achievements in 2014 represent a truly wonderful group effort from the entire College community. Sincere thanks to the members of the Advancement team and the members of the Executive Committee of the Foundation (ECOF) for their support and guidance during the year in the role. In particular, thanks to Mia Yourn, who has moved over to work with Foundation Studies; and Robin Campbell, who is leaving ECOF after many years of dedicated service.

Thank you also to the former Warden, the Very Revd Professor Andrew McGowan; Campbell Bairstow in his roles as Acting Warden and Provost; the Senior Management Team; and Charles Sitch, the Chairman of the Foundation.

The team is very excited about 2015 and about helping to set the College up for another 142 years.
OTHER COLLEGE-WIDE DEPARTMENTS

ART AND ARCHIVES

2014 WAS A PARTICULARLY ACTIVE YEAR FOR THE COLLEGE’S CULTURAL COLLECTIONS ACROSS BOTH THE VISUAL ART AND ARCHIVAL HOLDINGS.

The latest portrait commission of the Very Revd Father Miltiades Chryssavgis (TC 1952) by multiple Archibald Prize finalist Marcus Callum was unveiled in Sydney. It was subsequently unveiled at the Founders & Benefactors Dinner. Two further commissioned portraits are well advanced, again by Archibald finalists.

The student ER White Society made a particularly fine acquisition with a triptych painting by renowned artist Jon Cattapan. Cattapan was appointed an official war artist in 2008, and the purchased works reflect his experiences at that time.

In late 2013, an archival consultant was engaged to review the College’s archives. The report and recommendations have provided a template for the introduction of the Series System, a model developed by the National Archives of Australia in the 1960s.

New collection management software has been adopted, amalgamating the art and archival collections into a single database. This will allow for a greater level of data capture for better long-term management, and not only brings the College in line with software already widely in use across many of the cultural collections of the University of Melbourne, but also larger collecting institutions such as Museum Victoria and, internationally, the Smithsonian in the USA.

The generosity of our community has, as in past years, enriched our cultural holdings through gifts of artworks, historical items of College ephemera, and their recollections and memories as students and staff of a rich cultural heritage.

CHAPLAINCY

IN 2014, THE TEAM INCLUDED THE REVD LYNDA MCMINN AS COLLEGE CHAPLAIN, WITH A RESPONSIBILITY TO THE RESIDENTIAL COLLEGE; THE REVD CHRISTOPHER CAROLANE, COLLEGE CHAPLAIN WITH RESPONSIBILITY FOR FOUNDATION STUDIES; AND BISHOP IAN GEORGE AS ASSOCIATE CHAPLAIN.

Generous giving at the College’s regular Evensong services enabled funds to be raised to support a wide range of student outreach projects.

The Chapel was enhanced by some generous donations, including a beautifully crafted wedding kneeler, made and donated by former Dean of International Programs Barbara Cargill; a chasuble and stole set, designed and made by Heather Seymour and Dr Margaret Lush; and four chasubles and stoles designed and made by former Trinitarian the Revd Canon Jan Joustra.

The new Wellbeing program, designed to encourage emotional resilience in students as they face life’s adversities, was well received.

With growth in Foundation Studies, the Revd Christopher Carolane spent more of his time directly assisting Foundation Studies students and staff. In January Christopher conducted a second Trinity College and Friends Cambodian Service Project; and in September he facilitated and led a Central Australian adventure trip.

In December, the Chaplains, Music and Advancement staff again produced two well-attended and beautifully sung Services of Lessons and Carols at Trinity, and a third service at St Paul’s Cathedral, where funds were raised for the Brotherhood of St Laurence, Anglicare Victoria and the Christmas Bowl.
INDIGENOUS EDUCATION

THERE WERE 25 INDIGENOUS STUDENTS IN RESIDENCE, AND INDIGENOUS SCHOOL-AGED STUDENTS SPENT TIME LIVING ON CAMPUS FOR TRINITY YOUNG LEADERS PROGRAMS.

Important partnerships were maintained with Yalari, The Smith Family, Career Trackers (via Trinity’s Careers Office) and the Aurora Foundation, with a new partnership with GradAustralia being developed for 2015 to fund a half-scholarship.

The College continued to assist with the University’s access degree program, with the new Bachelor of Science Extended (a four-year course for Science students) offered from February 2015.

The Nakata Brophy Short Prose Prize for Young Indigenous Writers was again offered in 2014, and attracted a healthy number of entrants, with the prizes to be awarded in May 2015. The 2013 winner, Jessica Hart, whose poem ‘Land Mountain’ still adorns the glass wall in our café, spent a period in residence in December and gifted the College a collection of poems from that stay.

The annual student trip to North East Arnhem Land took place in July, with 15 students and a staff member spending 10 days with the Lirrwi Yolngu Tourism Aboriginal Corporation.

SUSTAINABILITY

IN 2014 THE SUSTAINABILITY INTERNS, MS GEORGIE DAVIE, MS DZIFA AMENUVEGBE AND MR JOE CAVANAGH, ASSISTED IN DELIVERING ON THE COLLEGE SUSTAINABILITY STRATEGY.

They helped with a range of initiatives including distributing keep-cups and water bottles to students, and recycling bins for student rooms; increasing awareness of the College strategy across the student community; assisting the coordination of community events such as ‘Clean Up Australia Day’ and the Community Planting Day in Royal Park; arranging guest expert speakers for Fireside Chats; and in working with other colleges around the crescent.

The College placed an order for a Gaia waste recycling system, which was installed over the 2014 summer break. The Gaia system processes kitchen and organic waste, resulting in a dry biomass rich in concentrated nutrients that is only 10–15% of the original volume and can be used in the College gardens. Based on the main campus’s current food waste, we estimate the new machine will reduce greenhouse gas emissions by 76.58 tonnes per annum.

A project was also initiated to redesign the waste stations in the various Pathways School properties to help create better awareness and effective waste management and recycling. These stations will be rolled out in 2015.

Following on from the work done in 2013, a review of performance against each of the Sustainability targets was initiated in late 2014 to feed into a project to review and renew how the College is performing, and to ensure it is on track to meet its 2022 Sustainability goals.
MUSIC

TRINITY COLLEGE IS RENOWNED FOR ITS MUSIC MAKING, AND THIS ACHIEVEMENT AND AMBITION WAS AS OBVIOUS IN 2014 AS IN PREVIOUS YEARS.

The year began with the appointment of Jonathan Grieves-Smith as Elisabeth Murdoch Fellow in Choral Music.

At the heart of the Choir’s work is the singing of Choral Evensong on Sunday evenings in semester. On Palm Sunday Eve, the College presented an outstanding performance of Bach’s St John Passion in a packed St Paul’s Cathedral, and broadcast on ABC Classic FM.

With Jonathan confirmed as Director of Music, the Choir toured to Brisbane and Hobart in October. The Choir also sang at the State Memorial Service for Flight MH17. The Carol Services in December were accompanied by College organist Hugh Fullarton.

The Candystripes had a wonderful 2014 with five new members and lots of fresh ideas. At the Victorian A Cappella state finals, Jordy McMillan gained the title of Best Soloist for her stirring vocals. The end of the year saw collaborations with the Trinity Tiger Tones, and our annual showcase in the Chapel, with proceeds donated to Heart Kids Australia.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY SERVICES

IN 2014, INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY SERVICES (ITS) IMPLEMENTED YEAR ONE OF A FIVE-YEAR STRATEGY.

This involved the completion of a new conduit and fibre optic network installation, the launch of new cloud IT software for the Careers Office, improved AV services for residential tutors, a lecture capture system trial and installation into Trinity’s four lecture theatres, as well as the launch of unlimited internet communications for Parkville campus residential students.

ITS also fitted out IT and AV services in the new teaching building at 200 Victoria Street, Carlton. Another 2014 project saw the development of eduroam wireless communications, which allows Trinity students to use the wireless network at the University of Melbourne and other universities.

In 2014 the eLearning Incubator was created to research, test and evaluate the latest apps and technology available for teachers and students in the classroom.

LIBRARY

The collection continues to grow with an increasing focus on electronic resources. The library targets acquisitions in support of teaching and learning at the University and in the Pathways programs, and for broadening exposure to quality literature.

Over 170 books were given as gifts, including a significant bequest from Frank Henagan of his extensive sports collection. The collections have been showcased throughout the year in a series of displays.

Other highlights of the year include the completion of the Radio-frequency identification (RFID) project and the installation of a state-of-the-art self-check unit, initiation of conservation work with our valuable rare book collection (pre-1801), extensive information literacy training with the Foundation Studies programs, new signage and the hosting of a student library intern from Austria.

STAFF ACHIEVEMENTS

Peter Campbell, JP, is an Honorary Research Fellow in the Melbourne Conservatorium of Music, the University of Melbourne. He continued as a member of the editorial committee for Context: A Journal of Music Research, as Treasurer of the Victorian Chapter of the Musicological Society of Australia (MSA), and as Treasurer of Ensemble Gombert Inc. His choral setting of the Lord’s Prayer was sung at a wedding in April, and an arrangement of the hymn ‘Morning has Broken’, at a wedding in July. As well as his appearances in concerts with Ensemble Gombert, he also sang as a guest chorister with the Choir of St Paul’s Cathedral, the Choir of Trinity College, Gloriana, and at the Intervarsity Choral Festival in Brisbane. In August, Peter was a judge for the vocal and choral section of the 2014 APRA/AMCOS Art Music Awards. His review of the Trinity production of the Drowsy Chaperone appeared in Trinity Today, vol. 82 (Aug. 2014): 15.

up: the Northern Territory Intervention and (Post)colonial Relationships to Land in Australia as Context for Reading the Magnificat as a Song of Protest’, and was a member of a book review panel.

Anne was the inaugural managing editor of Plumwood Mountain: An Australian Journal of Ecopoetry and Ecopoetics. Other presentations included ‘On (not) speaking about God ecologically’, given at Ecofaith conference, Chapel by the Sea, and ‘A Spirituality that is not One: Australian Poetry, Spirit and Country’ presented at the Carmelite Centre.

Dr Ying Zhou jointly published the original research article ‘The effectiveness of China’s RMB exchange rate reforms: An insight from multifractal detrended fluctuation analysis’ in Physica A: Statistical Mechanics and its Applications, volume 421: pages 443-454. The manuscript was accepted for publication in November 2014 and will be available in print in March 2015.

Andreas Loewe’s book Johann Sebastian Bach’s St John Passion: A Theological Commentary (Leiden: Brill, 2014) was launched by Bishop Barbara Darling in April. At St Paul’s Cathedral he hosted a Theological School forum on the Book of Common Prayer, and chaired a panel discussion on Bach’s B-minor Mass as part of ABC Classic FM Music Makers. He also sang with the MSO Chorus for performances of the B-Minor Mass conducted by Stephen Layton.

The Revd Christopher Carolane led the second Trinity College and Friends Cambodian Service Project based in Phnom Penh in January 2014, during which 17 FS students with 11 friends of the College finished building 12 houses in a poor village, renovated a wing of a local primary school, conducted maintenance at the Unaccompanied Association (UNACAS) orphanage and conducted hygiene programs in two abjectly poor villages, treating over 700 children for head lice. During the year he preached at The Holy Church in Phnom Penh, and at St Paul’s Cathedral, Melbourne, where he is an honorary member of the Cathedral clergy. In June he was a panelist at the annual conference of Civil Celebrants Graduate Association of Monash University. In July Christopher attended the conference of Colleges and Universities of the Anglican Communion (CUAC) in South Korea, where he gave a paper on the Trinity Foundation Studies Program. Throughout 2014 he continued as a member of the Board of the Council for Chaplains in Tertiary Institutions (Victoria).

Dr Katherine Firth continued to work at the University of Melbourne in Academic Skills, and in seconded roles as the Web Lead of the Student Services Strategic Communications Project; and a Subject Coordinator in the Melbourne Business School and Graduate School of Science. Returning to Trinity College in July 2014 as Head of Academic Programs, she was elected President of the SCR in October. Katherine published an article “Bright flower breaks from charnel bough”: The arts of peace and the 1953 Coronation’, in The Finzi Journal (March, 2014), 90-118. She also contributed a ‘New Study Translation’ to Johann Sebastian Bach’s St John Passion (BWV 245): A Theological Commentary: With a new Study Translation by Katherine Firth and a Preface by N. T. Wright, by A. Loewe (Leiden: Brill, 2014), 100-35.

Cathy Symington was Science Advisor (in addition to earlier roles as Communications Advisor and Advisory Board Member) to the board of WeForest (international reforestation NGO). Science writer for WeForest monthly newsletters: December 2014 ‘Where to from here? A synopsis of the IPCC 5th Assessment Report Summary for Policy Makers’; November 2014 ‘You’ve heard of the butterfly effect’, September 2014 ‘Deforestation – the challenges and opportunities are greater than you know’. TED-Ed lesson on the Calvin Cycle of photosynthesis published with over 123,000 views since release in April 2014: ‘Nature’s smallest factory – the Calvin Cycle’. Attended the annual Australian Council for Education Leaders conference in Melbourne.

Kitty Vroomen was a member of The Choir, directed by Dr Jonathan Welch, which supports the Choir of Hope and Inspiration (formerly the Choir of Hard Knocks) and the School of Hard Knocks. She was also a volunteer ‘Penguin Guide’ for EARTHCARE St Kilda. Kitty attended the ALIA National Conference 2014 (Australian Library and Information Association).

Kelly Owen completed with Distinction the first year of her Graduate Diploma in Social Science, Swinburne. Attended the National Career and Advisors Meeting in Wollongong in December, and met with career professionals from Australia, the UK, Canada and America. In 2014 Kelly also got married!
Benjamin Thomas co-authored the book publication Visions of Colonial Grandeur: John Twycross at Melbourne’s International Exhibitions (Melbourne, Museum Victoria, 2014) with Dr Charlotte Smith, Senior Curator, Politics & Society, Museum Victoria. In July he attended Writing Lives, a two-day writing workshop with noted Australian biographer David Day, hosted by Writers Victoria.

Lisa MacKinven served as the Coordinator of the Female Youth Leadership Program, an initiative of Game Changers Australia in partnership with Sport & Recreation Victoria.

Emma Henderson had two articles published last year (the GLR says 2013 but was not published until May 2014): ‘Narrative, Theatre and the Potential Interruptive Value of Jury Directions for Rape Trials in Victoria, Australia’, with Dr Kirsty Duncanson; (2014) 22(2) Feminist Legal Studies 1; ‘Meanings of “Sex” and “Consent”: The Persistence of Rape Myths in Victorian Rape Law’, with Dr Anastasia Powell, Dr Nicola Henry and Dr Asher Flynn; (2013) 22(2) Griffith Law Review 456.
