REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

A sincere thank you to the Executive Committee of the Foundation for their support and guidance during my first year in the role as Foundation Executive Director. Thank you also to the Warden, Andrew McGowan, the Senior Management Team and the Chairman of the Foundation, Charles Sitch.

The Foundation has once again made an important contribution to the College in 2013, and has laid the foundations for a successful Capital Campaign over the next five years.

The Foundation provided critical support for the major fundraising personnel and programs, which was critical to the philanthropic income attained, and to the planning and preparation for significant fundraising initiatives in the next few years.

Donations to the College in 2013 amounted to $1.95 million. Distributions and allocations from Foundation funds for fundraising activities, for scholarships and teaching, educational programs and for improved facilities, amounted to $1.6 million. This made a remarkable difference to the lives of College students and staff. The transformative nature of this support is inestimable.

In 2013, our Annual Giving program raised close to $550K, a 45% increase on 2012. We received $1.4 million in what we classify as Major Gifts, 20% more than the previous year. During the year the Advancement team also secured over $900,000 in pledges, which will convert to cash donations in the coming years.

Significantly, $100,000 was pledged to the Theology School, being the first installment of a $500,000 pledge over five years. The work of Ray Cleary, Revd Professor Dorothy Lee and Bishop Grant to secure this gift was much appreciated.

The area where we did not match the extraordinary results of 2012 dollars received was in bequests. In 2012 we received $460,000 in bequests, but in 2013 it was only $33,000. This is obviously a difficult area to predict, but what we can control is the 'pipeline' of intended bequestors. And in 2013 we grew our membership of the Leeper Society from 98 to 107.

Thanks to the many College supporters, we now can award over $1 million a year in scholarships, which makes up almost 15 per cent of total residential fees. Donors also made significant contributions to the Choir, our Indigenous programs, our Young Leaders programs, and to buildings and grounds.

Fundraising figures alone don't reveal the investment in future potential giving. In 2013 we had 600 individual donors, which was a 13% increase on 2012. More so, 120 of these were new donors to the College, which included the renovations to Behan.

The fundraising efforts were supported by fantastic efforts in Alumni engagement. During the year 1,800 people attended a range of events. Of them, 600 attended on multiple occasions. We were excited to see around 500 people attend our events for the first time in five years.

Strong attention was also placed in connecting with our Foundation Studies Alumni. We ran reunions in Malaysia, Singapore, Hong Kong and Melbourne. Some 200 people attended these events, and we now have over 500 correct email addresses for our Foundation Studies Alumni.

The year also saw its share of staff change. In January I commenced as the Director of Advancement, as did Kate Stewart, our Events Coordinator, and Mia Yourn, the Advancement Team Administrator. Jennifer Wraight, who works in the Major Gifts area, joined us for the last four months of the year; and in December we recruited a new Communications Manager, Ben Zipper.

The team has not grown in size; these people have either taken up roles that were already vacant or replaced the two staff members who moved on during the year: Penny Harth and Nicole Crook. The team now in place are thanked, as are both Penny and Nicole for their contributions throughout the year.

Looking forward, the Advancement team has been busy developing a fundraising strategy for the new Gateway Building. We are excited to note that the building is currently going through the town planning process.

With the Gateway Building forming a key aspect of the Trinity Board's Strategic Plan objective of a transformational education experience for students, the new building will signify a new and exciting chapter for the College.

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN

The Foundation had a very successful year in 2013. In 2013, overall fundraising was $1.95 million. In January, well-known and highly regarded alumni Scott Charles started as the Foundation's new Executive Director. Attendance at various Foundation events set new records; and my committee colleagues on the Foundation Executive continued their wonderful and very generous contributions.

Scott Charles has been a very well known and much loved figure around the College community for 20 years. In 1989 he was Senior Student. In the years since, Scott pursued a successful career in business. A little over a year ago we were very lucky to be able to lure him back to be Foundation Executive Director.

His impact has been enormous. In just 12 months he has reached out and reconnected the College to hundreds of alumni. Scott is bringing fresh perspectives and a ton of energy into annual giving, major gifts and building alumni connections with Foundation Studies alumni.

In October 2013, generations of College alumni gathered to celebrate Frank Henagan's 80th birthday and raise money for his scholarship.

Frank epitomised everything great about the College. The Frank Henagan Scholarship will be our perpetual reminder of him.

Drinks under the Oak attracted over 220 people, 70 more than the previous year. It again proved a powerful avenue for reconnecting with College alumni.

I would like to thank all the current members of the Executive Committee of the Foundation: Kathleen Bailey-Lord, Bill Cowan, Jono Gourlay, Robin Campbell, Mark Leslie, the Warden of Trinity College, Professor Andrew McGowan, Michael Munckton, Gary Norman (Honorary Treasurer), the Rt Revd James Grant and Ian Solomon. Their contribution, in time, great counsel and financial generosity is very much appreciated.

I would also like to thank the Advancement team, and other key staff members, for their tireless dedication in 2013: Kay Attali, Nicole Crook, the Rt Revd James Grant, Essie Marendy and Toni Roberts.

Last year we were delighted to have Jennifer Wraight rejoin the College as head of major gifts; and we welcomed new staff members: Kate Stewart, our Events Coordinator; Ben Zipper, Communications Manager; and Mia Yourn, Advancement Team Administrator. At the end of the year Penny Harth and Nicole Crook left to take up outside positions. We wish them well, and thank them for their contribution.

Finally, this year we launch the campaign for the new Gateway project, an exciting new building to be located in the southern corner of Trinity's main campus. It will include laboratories, tutorial rooms and an auditorium, and will be complemented by an art gallery and studio, music practice rooms and drama spaces.

This iconic building demonstrates the commitment that Trinity and the University of Melbourne both have in furthering the education of all students, and in establishing stronger ties with the rest of Asia, a factor crucial to Australia's future success in the region.

Trinity's aim is to build upon our leading position in the education marketplace. To achieve this, we need better facilities for classes and tutorials, for music and theatre productions and rehearsals.

Trinity has enjoyed generous philanthropic support since 1872 and this has allowed the College to reach its present pre-eminent position. We are hopeful that the current College community will continue this support and assist us in this visionary investment in education.

Mr Charles Sitch

FUNDS' PERFORMANCE

The Foundation raised $1.3 million in donations in 2013 and booked Investment Income of $1.4 million.

These donations, unless they were for a specific activity being undertaken by the College in the current year, are invested across segments of the investment market based on weightings determined in conjunction with the Foundation's (and the College's) investment advisors, Jana Investment Advisers Pty Ltd (JANA). The funds are invested in Australian and international equities, debt and liquid securities. The Foundation does not invest directly in securities, but utilises recommended fund managers specialising in the various market segments.

The weightings of our investments into the various segments determine a benchmark portfolio return, which measures the results from investments in sectors against the expected performance. The overall objective is to maintain the corpus of the Foundation funds in real terms so that inflation does not diminish the purchasing power of the endowed funds over time. To achieve this, and to provide for at least a 4% draw from the corpus to be utilised by the College each year, we also measure our performance against the benchmark of CPI plus 5%.

The 2013 Foundation's investments performance (refer table below) was prepared based on reports provided by JANA and show a positive performance of 21.6% in 2013. This compares favourably to the performance of the benchmark portfolio of 21.4%. With respect to the performance objective of CPI plus 5% over rolling five-year periods, the Foundation's performance exceeded the benchmark portfolio and the overall performance objective.

The performance of the Foundation's investments, as with the market generally, was strong in 2013.

The Foundation provided funding in 2013 for the College's requirements both from an operational and capital program perspective. Disbursements to Trinity College in 2013 totaled $1.6 million and included such areas as scholarships $641k; funding the campaign costs $463k; the Gourlay Visiting Professor of Ethics in Business program $99k; the BA Extended program $71k; capital works $22k; the Warden's discretionary fund for student financial aid support $55k; the Theological School fund $101k and the Choir and Music $64k.

The following table provides an historical context in terms of donations, investment income and disbursements to Trinity College over the period 2009-13 inclusive.

The Finance and Investment Management Committees continue to actively monitor the funds performance together with JANA in order to maintain the target of a rolling five-year performance of CPI plus 5%. The Committee made a number of changes to investments funds in 2013. Redemptions in the Warakirri Charitable Australian Equities Fund were reinvested in Vanguard, the Warakirri Australian Equities Pensions & Charities Fund and Coopers CI Asian Tiger Fund, these latter two being new funds. Redemptions in Aberdeen were reinvested in Apostle Loomis Sayles and Bentham Syndicated Loan Fund; and a redemption in the Hastings Yield Fund was invested in Apostle Loomis Sayles. The Committee also resolved to transfer the Tyndall investment from the Tyndall Australian Share Concentrated Income Fund to the Tyndall Australian Share Concentrated Income Fund-LT, a new fund set up by Tyndall to benefit low tax paying investors.

As reported previously, the Trinity College Board resolved to carry the shortfall between the market value and cost in an 'Available for Sale Investment Revaluation Reserve' in the balance sheet rather than take a charge to the profit or loss at that time. The Board took the position that the investments are a long-term asset of the Foundation, and therefore any movement should be reflected in the balance sheet rather than the profit or loss until sold. As a consequence, when the units in Tyndall were sold, a profit of $1m was realised, whereas units sold in Warakirri resulted in a loss of $15K. This treatment is consistent with the Foundation's (and College's) policy and consistent with Australian Accounting Standard 'AASB 139 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement'.

As stated above, the Investment Management Committee, Finance Committee and the Board continue to monitor the funds' performance and to work closely with JANA on charting a course that endeavours to maintain the real value of endowments and still meets the needs of Trinity College.

*'My scholarship has allowed me the freedom of knowing my place here
wasn't in jeopardy at the end of every year.
Applying here was one of the best things
I have ever done.'*
