THE YEAR OF MATTHEW DAY

A day for clergy and lay people to be enriched by the Gospel readings from Matthew and the Old Testament readings from Isaiah.

SATURDAY 5 NOVEMBER 2016
10.00am – 3.15pm, Old Warden’s Lodge, Trinity College, Parkville
$45 including lunch and morning tea
$35 concessional rate for Centrelink pensioners and full-time students

For clergy, this is a study day which will provide you with resources for preaching, worship and ministry in the coming Church year, commencing on Advent Sunday.

For lay people, this is a wonderful opportunity to explore Matthew’s Gospel and some of Isaiah, discover their riches and deepen your spirituality in the year ahead.

There will be plenty of opportunities for reflection, input and discussion.

THE DAY’S LEADERS
The Rev’d Canon Professor Dorothy Lee, Dean of the Theological School and Frank Woods Professor in New Testament
The Rt Rev’d Lindsay Urwin, OGS, Vicar of Christ Church Brunswick and the bishop encouraging ministry to Anglican schools, and an outstanding preacher and evangelist.
The Rev’d Dr Robyn Whitaker, Bromby Lecturer in Biblical Studies at Trinity College Theological School, a New Testament scholar and an ordained minister of the Uniting Church.

THE PROGRAM
The day’s three main themes will be
• The Gospel’s background, narrative structure and theological themes
• Preaching from the Gospel of Matthew
• Isaiah in Advent and beyond: prophetic hope & expectation in troubled times.
